

Vendor applications are now open for the Westman Early Learning Conference on October 23, 2026. If your business supports early childhood educators, we would be delighted to connect with you.

We are especially interested in vendors offering:

- Children's books
- Educational materials
- Loose parts and sensory/play resources
- Art supplies
- Indigenous-made items
- Outdoor learning products
- Educator wellness or therapeutic services
- Community-based supports

This conference brings together approximately 400 early childhood professionals, offering an excellent opportunity to showcase your products and services to a highly engaged audience.

Our 2026 theme is Honouring Children's Voices: Where Quality Begins. Additional details can be found at westmanearlylearning.ca or on Facebook under Westman Early Learning.
